ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The South Florida Water Management District and the Florida Department of Environmental Protection gratefully acknowledge the contributions of the professionals who have made the 2004 Everglades Consolidated Report a reality.

Authors: This report could not exist without the diligent effort of its authors. Their analyses of complex information form the substance of this work, and its quality and value are a reflection of their competence, commitment, and willingness to respond fully to peer review and public comment. Their professionalism and dedication are gratefully acknowledged. All authors are South Florida Water Management District staff except where noted.

Editorial and Production Team: The authors' products were organized, edited, and formatted by an editorial and production team of skilled professionals. The exceptional teamwork and productivity of these individuals are respectfully acknowledged: Diane Bello-Smith, Ken Chen, Cheri Craft, Stacey J. Efron, Penny Holm, Christopher King, Patrick Lynch, Trudy Morris, Kathy Ronan, Barbara W. Ross, Carrie L. Trutwin, Everglades Consolidated Report Production Manager, and Emilio Vazquez.

Other Contributors: The following individuals from the District's Environmental Monitoring and Assessment Department provided essential data analyses and technical assessments for multiple report chapters and appendices: Tim Bechtel, Larry Fink, Guy Germain, Steven Hill, Nenad Iricanin, Cheol Mo, Richard Pfeuffer, and Darren Rumbold. The following individuals from the District are also acknowledged for their vital assistance in conducting the peer review and public workshops: Andrea Carlton, Linda Davis, Barbara Dickey, Trudy Morris, Mary Skinner, and Michael Wedding.

Garth Redfield, Chief Scientist in the District's Environmental Monitoring and Assessment Department, serves as the editor of this report, managing its development in association with colleagues Gary Goforth and Kirk Burns. These editors work closely with Frank Nearhoof of the Florida Department of Environmental Protection's Water Quality Standards and Special Projects Program to coordinate the creation of this joint product. This large, multidisciplinary document could not be produced without the thoughtful oversight of senior management. In particular, the effective leadership of Naomi Duerr, Debra Azeredo, Linda Lindstrom, and Jan Loftin from the District are gratefully acknowledged.
