ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The South Florida Water Management District and the Florida Department of Environmental Protection gratefully acknowledge the contributions of the professionals who have made the 2006 South Florida Environmental Report – Volume I (2006 SFER) a reality.

Authors: This report could not exist without the diligent effort of its authors. Their analyses of complex information form the substance of this work, and its quality and value are a reflection of their competence, commitment, and willingness to respond fully to peer review and public comment. Their professionalism and dedication are gratefully acknowledged. All authors are South Florida Water Management District staff except where noted.

Editorial and Production Team: The authors' products were organized, edited, and formatted by an editorial and production team of skilled professionals. Stacey Efron, SFER Production Manager, plays a remarkable role in leading the team's efforts. The exceptional teamwork and productivity of these District staff are respectfully acknowledged: Ken Chen, Christopher King, Patrick Lynch, Trudy Morris, Kathy Ronan, and Diane Smith. The technical editor, Wendy Wagman (Metcalf & Eddy), is also thankfully acknowledged for her significant contribution to this report.

Project Team: Garth Redfield, Chief Environmental Scientist in the District's Environmental Resource Assessment Department, serves as the project manager of the 2006 South Florida Environmental Report – Volume I, managing its development in association with colleagues Stacey Efron and Kirk Burns. This staff works closely with Frank Nearhoof of the Florida Department of Environmental Protection's Water Quality Standards and Special Projects Program to jointly coordinate the creation of Volume I, Chapter 2 and its associated appendices. Overall, this large, multidisciplinary document could not be produced without the thoughtful oversight of senior management. In particular, the effective leadership of Linda Lindstrom, Debra Azeredo, Julianne LaRock, and Jan Loftin from the District are gratefully acknowledged. The guidance of the 2006 SFER Project Management Oversight Group – Debra Azeredo, Aaron Basinger, Douglas Bergstrom, Alejandro Perez, and Steve Reel – is also respectfully acknowledged.

Other Contributors: The extensive amount of data and other information provided throughout Volume I are greatly supported by the three divisions of the District's Environmental Resource Assessment Department – Water Quality Monitoring, Water Quality Analysis, and Water Quality Assessment. The long list of individuals throughout these divisions that have contributed to the essential data collection, monitoring, analyses, validation, and technical assessments for multiple report chapters and appendices continues to contribute to the enormous success of this massive report and their efforts are greatly appreciated. The following District staff is also acknowledged for their vital assistance in conducting the peer review and public workshops: Robin Chesser, Linda Davis, Trudy Morris, Todd Nesst, and Michael Wedding.
